DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL.

VOL. 18. RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA. TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 9, 1883. NO. 81.

PRIZE BOOKS FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Weekly Journal's Clubbing Arrangement with the Cincinnati Commercial.

Having made arrangements to club the WEEKLY JOURNAL with the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, we announce that we will furnish the WEEKLY JOURNAL and the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, a large 8-page, 56-column family newspaper, printed from large, clear new type, and furnishes more reading matter for the money than any other newspaper in the county, the issue of each week containing over twenty-two square feet of printed matter, and is not surpassed for news, business reports, literary and select reading, one year for $3 50, and will give as a free prize to each yearly subscriber under this clubbing arrangement any one book he may select from the following famous works—postage paid and free of all cost—the books being unabridged, beautifully printed on good paper in paper covers: Tennyson's Poems; The Arabian Nights: The Narrative of the Jeannette Arctic Expedition, by Lieut. Danenhower; The Mill on the Floss, by George Eliot; Wood's Natural History for Boys, (300 illustrations); East Lynne, by Mrs. Henry Wood; Vennor's Almanac for 1883; The Swiss Family Robinson; A Treaties on the Horse and His Diseases, by Dr. B. J. Kendall; The Woman in White, by Wilkie Collins, History of the Kingdom of Ireland; Waverly, by Sir Walter Scott; A Brave Lady, by Miss Mulock; The Bible Dictionary; Lady Audley's Secret, by Miss Braddon.

It will be noticed that our selection of prizes covers an extraordinary range and variety of the brightest and best books.

Free specimen copies of the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial may be obtained by addressing M. Halstead & Co., Proprietors Commercial, Cincinnati, Ohio, and free specimen copies of the JOURNAL can be obtained by addressing C. C. Powning, Proprietor JOURNAL, Reno, Nevada.

Send postal card asking for specimen copies.

Cash System! Cash System!

Since my first announcement that I proposed to place my business on a cash basis on Jan. 1st, I have received much encouragement from many of my customers. They appreciate the fact that it is a fair system, as all pay cash or its equivalent; they do not, as under the credit system, have charged to them the loss suffered by some debtor who has "skipped" his account, and frequently the country. Also the cash system has harmonious influences, there being fewer circumstances to create difficulties between the dealer and his customers, such as dunning, refusal of credit, sueing, etc. I have in reserve a good proof that it pays to buy for cash. It is a price list, which will be out January 1, 1883. Send or call for one.

Respectfully,

JERRY SCHOOLING.

Fine Job Work.

The JOURNAL job office has just received a large and fine stock of paper, cards, inks, etc., for job printing and is prepared to take orders for every description of work in the printing line. Only skilled workmen are employed in the job room and no inferior work is allowed to leave the office. Compensating prices are charged for every job and satisfaction guaranteed. Call and examine our specimens and leave your orders.

DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

C. C. Powning, Editor & Proprietor

TUESDAY.....JANUARY 9, 1882.

THE WARDENSHIP.

The Austin Reveille of last Thursday says:

A brisk fight is being made for the Wardenship. The contest has narrowed down to Frank Bell, of Reno, and W. D. C. Gibson, of Virginia City. As between the two men, Frank Bell is much the better man for the place, and the prison will be placed in good hands if he is elected. The prospects are very good for his success. No man in the State is better known.

In its issue of Saturday it has this:

Every taxpayer of Nevada should be interested in the contest over the Wardenship of the State Prison. This officer has the spending of $160,000 in two years, and certainly that sum of money ought to be carefully handled. As the whirligig of politics makes it impossible of William Garrard to hope to be re-appointed, we naturally look over the field and inquire who is the best of the applicants. All of the men aspiring possess merits—no doubt about it, but at the same time not all of them would make ideal Wardens. A careful survey of the whole crowd leads us to the conclusion that Frank Bell, of Reno, is the most fitted for the place. Mr. Bell has been in active life for nearly a quarter of a century, is honest, upright, and of A 1 executive ability. It is needless for us to sound his praises to the people of Nevada. He is too well known to require any such at our hands. The Legislature should study the public good in the appointment of this responsible officer.

The Reveille is evidently deeply interested in its cause and candidate. The JOURNAL takes pleasure in fully endorsing all that it has said, and in its opinion there is not a man in the State of Nevada who would make a better Warden than Frank Bell. He is as honest as the day is long; he is not addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, so that his head is always clear; he does not gamble, therefore it is impossible for him to ever be short in his accounts. Above all, he is a man of extraordinary ability. For twenty years he was superintendent of the Nevada division of the Western Union Telegraph Company. The experience gained by such service has made him a close calculator, and it is certain that under his management the State Prison would be managed honestly and economically, and the JOURNAL believes that the people would get the full benefit of every dollar the care and maintenance of the prisoners would cost them. There is not a man in the State more peculiarly fitted for the position of Warden than Mr. Bell, and the Republicans would do themselves credit by choosing him for the place.

Among the changes recommended by the Tariff Commission is the annexed:

In schedule K—wool and woollens—the distinction between washed and unwashed is removed, and the duty is fixed at the same figure as that imposed upon washed wool by the present law. On woollen rags, shoddy and waste, the duty is fixed at 10 cents instead of 12 cents per pound. Upon woollen cloths of all grades the duty is fixed at 40 cents per pound.

Undoubtedly this will affect all Nevada men engaged in sheep raising, and we are inclined to believe greatly to their detriment.

The Austin Reveille has this:

The people of Reno are holding public meetings to discuss economy in State and county affairs. Figures have been collected showing that it costs a million dollars yearly to run our State and county governments, and that there is but forty millions of taxable property in the State, thus showing that the taxes would absorb the entire State in forty years. This is an alarming showing, and to prevent bankruptcy careful attention should be paid to our public service. Here is a chance for a display of statesmanship and economy which should not be lost sight of.

The Commissioner of the Land Office recommends that all pre-emption laws be repealed, because entries may now be made under the Homestead law in all bona fide cases of pre-emption. A bill before the House contains a provision for this repeal. Another bill provides that all bills authorizing sales of public land be repealed. This is to prevent speculators from getting hold of lands which should be reserved for actual settlers.

The Virginia Footlight asserts that there is not the least doubt but what the Supreme Court of the State will decide in favor of the ousting of two of the three lately elected Storey County Commissioners.

This Legislature will have to elect two Regents of the State University, in place of J. S. Mayhugh and Charles H. Sproule, whose terms expire. Their successors have not been mentioned.

In Arizona one of the questions which will excite interest at the coming session of the Legislature is a proposition to impose a bullion tax.

Following the example of Pattison and Cleveland, Gov. Stoneman, of California, declines a military display at his inauguration.

ABOUT THE STATE PRISON.

Controller Hallock's report shows that for the support of the State Prison for the years 1881-82, the sum of $100,000 was appropriated, and there has been expended the sum of $97,373 96. The average number of prisoners has been about 129, and the average cost per capita, for their care, support, and transportation has been about $1 03 per diem; boots and shoes furnished prisoners not included.

Sixty thousand dollars were appropriated by the last legislature for the purpose of carrying on the manufacture of boots and shoes at the State Prison for the years 1881-82, and $49,794 45 of the amount has been expended. The business has been carried on at a loss, goods furnished prisoners not considered, as will appear by the following statement for eighteen months, ending September 30, 1882:

Loss during year ending Sept. 30, '82.	457 61
Total.....	$81,670 36

If statement were made from December 31, 1880, it would show a greater loss; but during the first quarter of 1881 the stock on hand was re-valued at a sum much less than the valuation of December 31, 1880, and statement is made from March 31, 1881, that it may be more readily comprehended.

The amount outstanding on credit sales has been materially reduced since September 30th, but it will effect no change in this statement as to loss sustained.

DEPRECIATION OF VALUES.

Controller Hallock's report shows that Churchill, Elko, Esmeralda, Lander, Lincoln and Washoe counties, in 1882, show an increase of assessable property valuations, over 1881, to the amount of $1,074,077 15, but Douglas, Eureka, Humboldt, Lyon, Nye, Ormsby, Storey and White Pine counties show a decrease to the amount of $2,071,980 45; and a total decrease in the State of $997,903 30.

The depreciation is most marked in Storey county, which showed a valuation in 1881 of $5,212,823 39, and in 1882 of $3,926,216 10; a decrease of $1,286,607 29.

The decrease of the net proceeds of mines for the year was principally in the counties of Esmeralda, Eureka and Lander, and amounted to $801,817 11, making a total decrease of assessable valuations of $1,799,720 41.

The total valuations for 1882, including the net proceeds of mines, amounted to $29,109,889 86.

Attorney General Murphy.

Hon. M. A. Murphy, our new District Judge, says the Lyon county Times, came over from Carson on Tuesday morning and returned the same evening. Judge Murphy leaves the office of Attorney General with an excellent record as an efficient and energetic officer, and brings to the bench a bright reputation for legal ability, application to duty and impartial clear headed judgement. Under Judge Murphy our legal business will be ably managed, and from his past career there is every reason for predicting that the 3d District will be able to boast of possessing one of the brightest, readiest and most accurate District Judges in the State.

A prophet of evil is predicting all sorts of terrible happenings for this year, and the first thing announced on the programme is a great financial crisis, to be followed by a hurricane. The first has no special terror for editors, as most of them have the disorder chronic. We don't belive in the hurricane, or the earthquake or the cholera part of the prediction. It would have been as easy to predict felicity and fortune as hell and hurricanes, with the chances for the verification of the good better than for that of the evil, since the world contains more of the first than the last. Let us then continue our habits of getting rich. The man with a good bank account needn't care for earthquakes, and the Christian with a clear conscience need not dread the cholera. Get religion and wealth, and let the wind blow.

The California Legislature convened yesterday.

THE STATE'S DEPRESSION.

Some of the Blunderings that Have Lead Thereto.

E. T. George, editor of the Lewis Herald, returned home recently from a thorough inspection of the mining country in the southern counties of Nevada. He is a very intelligent gentleman, a practical miner and a very close observer. He gives in the following article some very useful hints. Mr. George says:

During our trip through the southern part of Nevada we were surprised at the number of reduction works that had been erected in the different mining camps and lying idle, monuments of folly and mismanagement. If one-fourth the amount of capital had been expended in exploring the mines that has been wasted in erecting those expensive works, our State would to-day be the greatest bullion producer in the world. Valuable mines are lying idle, which, if worked on legitimate business principles, would be dividend payers, but useless expenditures and gross mismanagement have caused stockholders to refuse to contribute any further funds, and the mines and mills have become almost uninhabited, where heretofore all was life and bustle, and not on account of the merits or demerits of the mines, but simply for the incapacity and make all you can for yourself management. Nevada has had "wild cat and stock jobbery" enough. While our neighboring mineral States are enjoying a season of prosperity, Nevada is undergoing a season of dullness unparalleled in her history, and through no fault of her mines or mineral wealth. We believe that our State is the best mineralized State of Territory in the Union, if properly worked, and in all our principal mining camps it has been proven beyond a doubt that our mineral veins are continued to as great a depth as in any other country in the world. Then why should so many of our mines be lying idle to-day? Let any person who has been a resident of those camps answer the question. Is it through the mines giving out, or on account of the poorness of the ore? Can they truthfully say yes in either case. There may be some few exceptions, but the greater number will have to be laid to the incapacity of the management and useless expenditures in salaries to non-producers. How many mines are there whose pay-roll for miners and mill men equal the amount paid out to supernumeraries, many of whom have never seen a mine, and know no more about mining than a cow does about handling a musket. Mining can be made a paying business, and will pay a larger rate of interest on the amount invested than almost any other business, but must be conducted on the same business principles that any other business is conducted on, then, and not till then, will our State return to its old time prosperity, and it should be the endeavor to all interested in mining and the welfare of the State of Nevada, to do all in their power to encourage legitimate mining and discourage wildcat schemes and stock jobberies.

Oddities in Prices.

The Austin Democrat says:

Beer is 37 cents a glass in Monteray, Mexico.

Sagebrush sells for $14 a cord in Tuscarora.

Eggs are $1 50 a dozen in Baker District, Montana.

Coal is "down" at $15 a ton at Winnipeg, Manitoba.

At Lumpkin, Georgia, sweet potatoes sell for only 25 cents a bushel.

Butter is scarce at $1 a pound in some of the Montana mining towns.

Fat wild ducks are sold at 2 cents apiece at Lake Charles, Lousiana.

It takes $15 to buy 100 pounds of flour in Baker Mining District, Montana.

At Marshfield, Missouri, wood is $2 a cord; at Winnepeg it is quoted at $14 a cord.

Fresh eggs sell for 75 cents per dozen in Bodie. In Iowa 20 cents will secure a dozen.

It costs $5,000 to buy a legislator in Massachusetts, while in Nevada one can be secured for $50.

Greensboro, North Carolina, grave robbers ask $10 for every corpse in tolerable good condition.

Whiskey sells for 25 cents a glass in Austin. In Toronto a better article can be obtained for 5 cents.

It costs $17 for a ticket from Reno to San Francisco. The same distance can be traveled in the States for $7.

While butter is only 20 cents a pound in Marshfield, Missouri, the dealers ask 75 cents a pound for it at Butte, Montana.

"FREED HIS MAN."

Hon. Walter Marsden's Tongue-Lashing of Fitzgerald, the Scoundrel.

Our readers are aware that Hon. Walter Marsden, a few weeks ago, gave publicity in the Eureka Leader to a few of the evil doings of one R. L. Fitzgerald, alias Major Wilson, alias anything-to-suit-the-occasion. The Major was at Austin at the time endeavoring to swindle some of the good people of that town. Mr. Marsden, in course of duty, felt it incumbent upon him to expose the confidence games of the Major. The Major wrote two or three insulting letters to Marsden, and asserted he would "settle" with him at his earliest convenience. On Sunday last it so happened that Mr. Marsden was in Reno visiting friends, and by a singular coincidence the Major also happened to be at the Depot Hotel, having arrived from Bodie the night before. Mr. Marsden heard that Fitzgerald was in town, and naturally supposed he desired to "settle" with him, so he walked into the bar-room of the Depot Hotel, and accosted the Major with Jim Nye's salutation to Hon. Charles Sumner, following it up with an exhaustive exhaustion of such dictionary words as are usually applied to such infamous scoundrels as constitute the Fitzgerald type of mankind. The Major accepted the compliments as though he deserved them. Mr. Marsden finally gave the villain a pious admonition, and stepped on board the 2 o'clock Carson train to resume his Legislative duties.

"ESMERALDA."

The Story of the Famous Play that We are Soon to See.

It has already been announced that the play of "Esmeralda" will shortly be produced in Reno, Manager Piper having engaged (for one night only) the original Madison Square Company—the troupe which has made the play famous. An outline of the story of the play will be of general interest. Here it is:

THE STORY OF "ESMERALDA."

Elbert Rogers, an honest old North Carolina farmer, lived with his wife "Lyddy Ann," and his daughter "Esmeralda," on a poor farm in one of the western counties of the State. The young girl was in love with Dave Hardy, a noble specimen of a Southern yeoman. Dave had secretly built him a little house for Esmeralda, and when the play opens he is just about telling Esmeralda's mother of his love for her daughter and his prospects in life. Mrs. Rogers, a shrewd, scheming mother, has reluctantly given consent to their marriage, when a Northern speculator appears upon the scene and proposes to buy the farm, all the while concealing the fact that it contains a valuable vein of iron ore. Mrs. Rogers, who "runs things generally," is about to dispose of the barren property at any price when Dave Hardy, who has seen the speculator and his friend viewing the land and examining specimens, suddenly suspects that they are after the property for its mineral deposits. He snatches the deed from Mrs. Rogers, who is about to deliver it, and exposes the scheme of the speculators. Mrs. Rogers then makes a new bargain, whereby the farm makes them millionaires. Her first act is to discard Dave, who would never do for the husband of her rich daughter. Esmeralda clings to Dave, who finally leaves her so as not to stand in the way of her education and advancement.

In the second act we find the Rogers' in Paris, where they have formed the acquaintance of a young American painter and his sisters residing there. The Rogers family are living in luxury, and the mother is planning the marriage of Esmeralda to a French Marquis. The faithful girl clings fondly to her love for Dave, who has secretly followed her to Paris, and is living there in poverty. He comes to the studio to sit as a model, and there meets a friend of the speculator, who tells him that the vein of ore on the Rogers land suddenly gave out and turned up on the farm where Dave had built his little house for Esmeralda, thus making him a very rich man.

In the next act kind-hearted old Mr. Rogers tries to get the Marquis to give up his claim to Esmeralda, because she is breaking her heart for Dave. The Frenchman refuses. When Esmeralda discovers that Dave is in Paris, poor and hungry, she rejects the Marquis with scorn, defies her mother, and falls fainting in her father's arms, "going back to North Carolina in spite of them all."

In the last act old Mr. Rogers, who has always given up to his wife, makes a stand and resolves to bring Esmeralda and Dave together, which he does. Mrs. Rogers now first finds out that her money was long since exhausted, and that Dave has been secretly furnishing the family with funds, and finally relents, and the curtain rings down with the "sun shining on the little house," where Dave and Esmeralda go to pass their honeymoon.

"The Town Site of Reno Twenty Years Ago."

Visiting the studio of McClellan the other day, we found him engaged on a number of studies in different branches of art. The most interesting, to us, was the town site of Reno twenty years ago, looking northwest from Lake's bridge. Those who only know the Reno of today would take a lively pleasure in viewing the "small acorn" of '62 from which the present Reno has grown. The painting is full of historical interest, suggesting the idea that it should be accessible to the public generally, as an interesting chapter in the growth of Washoe county and the State. The grouping of the figures and cattle, the careful attention to detail in all the accessories of the picture are carried out with truthfulness and wonderful skill. The Indian figures in the work are all depicted with lifelike faithfulness. The linear prospective and atmospheric effect is true to nature. The handling of the whole subject from distance to foreground gives evidence of being manipulated by an experienced hand. Mr. McClellan has also, on his easel, an allegorical study, entitled "The First Trial by Jury," taken from an ink sketch belonging to Judge Rising, of Storey county.

"Female Complaints."

DR R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N Y.: Dear Sir—I write to tell you what your "Favorite Prescription" has done for me. I had been a great sufferer from female complaints, especially "dragging-down," for over six years, during much of the time unable to work. I paid out hundreds of dollars without any benefit till I took three bottles of the "Favorite Prescription," and I never had anything do me so much good in my life. I advise every sick lady to take it.

A JUST DECISION.

Miners Entitled to All Veins and Timber Contained Within Their Lines of Location.

N. C. McFarland, Commissioner of the Land Office, in a letter to C. Y. Shelton, of Walker, A. T., thus defines the rights of miners:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9, 1882.

C. Y. SHELTON, Esq., Walker, A. T.—Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter without date, in which you state that all the mining claims in your vicinity are 1500 feet in length and 600 feet in width, and a large number of them contain more than one vein; that it is rumored that information had been received from Washington that the original locators could only hold one vein or lode within the boundaries of their respective claims, and that outside parties could go upon such claims, locate and hold one of the veins. You ask if this is true, and whether outside parties have a right to enter upon claims properly located, and cut timber therefrom, for building or other purposes, or reside thereon, or work the same for the placer mineral.

In reply I have to state, by the act of July 9, 1865, the miner could only acquire and hold one lode or vein within the limits of his surface location; but the act of May 10, 1872, gave the locator of a lode claim additional rights; it granted to him a specific quantity of surface ground, the lode located and all other veins or lodes the apices of which lie within the surface lines of his location. Such veins are not subject to location or relocation so long as the original locator complies with the law; nor would a stranger be authorized to reside upon the claim, or cut timber standing thereon, without the consent of the owner; and any forcible attempt to do so would be a trespass. The owner's remedy would be in the local courts. See letter of Secretary of Interior to this office, under date of September 30, 1882. (Washington Law Reporter, pp. 636.) The locator of a lode claim acquires the right to all surface ground embraced within the exterior boundaries of his location, not previously reserved or appropriated, and the discovery of mineral thereon would not authorize an outside party to go upon the claim for the purpose of mining thereon. Very respectfully,

N. C. MCFARLAND,
Commissioner.

This should be ample notice to some who seem to think that the woods are free, and that they have a right to cut timber, reside or mine where they please; defy law and man; take a part of that which belongs to others, or influence some one in that way, simply because they begrudge the law-abiding people their property.

Robbing the Government.

Colonel De Ahne, the resident special agent of the Interior Department, returned to Carson from Pine Nut Valley, a little south of there, a day or two since and informed an Appeal reporter, that great depredations had been committed on the public domain in that section for the past dozen years or more. The settlers in the valley have cut timber for charcoal burning and other traffic, which was strictly the property of the Government, and which may run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. The Appeal says "Colonel De Ahne does not state what steps, if any, will be taken to punish the depredators. With very few exceptions they are poor men, who have accomplished no more than to earn a meagre livelihood by their thefts. It is more than likely, however, that the Government will institute criminal proceedings against those individuals. Among the number are a few who are comparatively wealthy; and the chances are that they will be compelled to disgorge."

The purity and elegant perfume of Parker's Hair Balsam explain the popularity of this reliable restorative.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S SALE.

STATE OF NEVADA, }
County of Washoe, }

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT UNDER and by virtue of a decree and order of sale duly issued out of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Ninth Circuit, District of Nevada, upon a judgment and decree rendered in said Court, on the 9th day of November, 1882, in favor of Felix Monet, as plaintiff, and against Pierre Humbert, Senior, and Pierre Humbert, Junior, as defendants, for the sum of sixteen hundred and seventy-five dollars ($1675) with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, and costs taxed at one hundred and seventy dollars and eighty-five cents ($170 85) together with accruing costs; to said Marshal directed and delivered, I did in the manner directed by law, seize and levy upon, as the property of the defendants named in said order of sale, that certain property, to-wit: the following described real property, that is to say, all the right, title and interest which said Pierre Humbert, Senior and Pierre Humbert, Junior had of, in or to the claims and premises hereinafter described, on the 9th day of May, 1878, or at any time since, to-wit: Those certain mining claims situate near Steamboat Springs, Washoe county, State of Nevada, known as the mining claims of the Nevada Quicksilver Mining Company, and consisting of five claims of the length of fifteen hundred (1500) feet each, and of the width of six hundred (600) feet each, and known as the property of said defendants and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: Those certain tracts of mineral land situate in the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and particularly described as follows, to-wit: That certain mining claim and location situate near Steamboat Springs and described as the first extension south of the Clinton Lode, commencing at a post S. 22 deg.
